

Nazifa worked on the 3D printing, as she has one, and helped come up with the iterations and prototype.

Josephine helped make the prototype and the iterations, as well as assisted with the electronics.

Natasha Worked on the prototype and electronics and helped with a bit of the iterations.

Overall, we all did our fair share of work on the project.